

It would be a disservice to XM radio subscribers not to be able to monitor travel and weather conditions throughout the United States. I travel regularly from Florida to Maine and have used the XM stations for designated cities because of the uninterrupted signal they provide. Why in the world would you want to make travel information unavailable for XM listeners is beyond me!! Please don't take this valuable aid to motorists away.